

Carlock Residents,
we are asking for asking for your assistance, please...

1. We are in need of two board members. Please consider applying for appointment.

What makes a good Board Member candidate:

Ability and willingness to attend and contribute to monthly board meetings on the 4th Tuesday and occasional special meetings when they are called.

Ability to serve on work committees (usually 3) and serve as chair of one of them. Work committees meet as needed.

Willingness to be available to fellow residents/constituents to listen to and discuss their concerns and/or suggestions.

Willingness to attend and help with village events.

Candidates must meet the following requirements:

Be a current Village of Carlock resident, having lived within the village limits for at least one year.

Be clear of any felony convictions.

If interested, please send an email to carlockmayor@gmail.com. Please include what you like about Carlock, what you would like to see improved, and what would make you a valuable board member. Please do not hesitate to call with questions: 309.275.8451 (evenings and weekends)

2. Give us some input about our park/s. It's quick and easy!
